

KPS appoints new independent non-executive directors

KUALA LUMPUR, April 6 (Bernama) -- Kumpulan Perangsang Selangor Bhd (KPS) has appointed Rita Benoy Bushon and Norliza Kamaruddin as its independent non-executive directors, effective April 6, 2018.

In a statement today, KPS said Rita had a background in the capital market, having served at the Employees Provident Fund for 23 years, holding numerous senior positions such as Head of Equity Research, Head of External Portfolio Management and Head of Private Equity.

Meanwhile, Norliza has more than 25 years of experience across a variety of sectors, including energy, finance, banking and aviation.

She had also served as the Global Head of Strategic Communications at Petronas and Country Head of Corporate Affairs at Standard Chartered Malaysia, it said.

KPS Chairman Raja Datuk Idris Raja Kamarudin said the appointment of the two women was part of the group's commitment to embrace gender diversity as well as expanding its breadth of experience, based on individual merits.

"We look forward to their contributions to the company's mission in creating sustainable value for our stakeholders and enhancing the quality of life of the larger community," he said.
