PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Chief Executive Officer of Perangsang Selangor, Ahmad Fariz Hassan expressed, “Perangsang Selangor is honoured to be recognised by MIHRM in this year’s Employer of Choice category. The award signifies that we have an effective and systematic approach in managing our employees. We believe in creating sustainable value for the company by inculcating a high-performance culture and prioritising on our human capital development”.

The MIHRM Employer of Choice Award recognises sustained and continuous commitment by organisations and corporations for the development of its human talents through the alignment and achievement of HR strategies (with business objectives, goals and KPI’s), talent management, leadership development, performance management, progressive and dynamic HR management policies, strong support of both Government’s strategic reform initiatives and continuous application of HR system and technology. Ultimately, through the award and the related recognition, MIHRM aims to promote HR as an integral ‘business partner’ and demonstrate the importance of HR strategy in achieving organisational goals.

“Since 2016, we have successfully completed a number of new acquisitions and we intend to expand these investments and turn them into market leaders. To achieve it we need to groom our people to become experts so that we could export talents at subsidiary level”, explained Ahmad Fariz.
